Jno Brookfield

Jno Brookfield

R. I. McDowell being duly sworn says that he is now & has been for several years President of Traders National Bank. That for several years Jno Brookfield has been indebted to said Bank and in the month of January 83 said debt exceeded one thousand dollars. That as his said Bank intended to wind up its business and cease to exercise its franchise. he went to Mr. Brookfield and desired him to pay said debt or to secure some as he had told affiant he would do in case any trouble should come to him in his business. That Jno Brookfield told affiant that if he could get extensions upon debts which would mature in Jan'y & Feb'y. he could go on with his business and pay all his debts. That he was endeavoring to procure such extensions at that time. That affiant repeatedly requested said Brookfield to give him the security which he had promised. That he went with said Brookfield to the office of his attorney Jones & Johnson on 20 Jan'y and there heard read over the deed of trust that Brookfield signed it. Affiant witnessed and said deed was left with Brookfield.
