

recitation of the said deed of trust That Brookfield had repeatedly told affiant that he did not wish to injure his credit by making a deed of trust and if he could get extensions he thought he could pay all his debts. That he had made a large amount of money on the post and could then do so from to and subscribed before me this 15th day of 1883 R. J. McEwen J. C. Quinn & Co.

By R. J. McEwen

Son before me 45 Execution of the said deed of trust That Brookfield had repeatedly hold affiant that he did not wish to injure his Credit by making a deed of that day if he could get extensions he thought he could pay her debts that he had made a forge amount of money in the port and could he do so to and subscribed this Mch 15783 R J M Howell son by R H Gisborne

Citation:

"Mecklenburg, North Carolina, United States records," images, FamilySearch (<https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/3:1:3QS7-89WL-TLRD?view=fullText> : Feb 5, 2025), image 119 of 885; North Carolina. Division of Archives and History.

<https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/3:1:3QS7-89WL-TLRD?view=fullText>